

2007, May

We are happy to remind you that a new free service is available for end-users and our resellers. Our goal is to facilitate sales and to help you being informed regarding your customer's licenses and a lot more ...

Spaces are dedicated to Datakit's end users and resellers. All you have to do is register your contact details to create a charge-free account. If you wonder whether your company gets an account and/or if you wish to check your identification references, please email webmaster@datakit.com

RESELLERS ROOM

Official dealer status will enable you to:

- download plug-ins or stand-alones translators
- generate your own 3 month dealer licenses
- First of all, please email webmaster@datakit.com to provide us details regarding the HostID of your computers.
- Object: HostID + name of your company
- Message: precise the name of your company/name of the user/HostID
- We are going to confirm by return, we properly registered your data.
- manage customer accounts for users by accessing a precise statement of their products, hosted, end of warranty or licenses.
- request or generate a demo license
- generate the annual licenses for your customers.

All licenses requests made by any of your customers will be redirected to you.

- access to the same services as an end-user customer or prospect

END-USERS ROOM

End-users can:

- download plug-ins or stand-alones translators
- easily request a demo license
- access technical product documentation (functions, required configuration, release notes, etc.)

Customers also enjoy the following benefits:

- information on warranty and maintenance period expiry dates
